

breached in 2008 and has begun to recruit pickleweed and cordgrass to the marsh surface. The intertidal ponds in outer Bair Island are ringed by a borrow ditch, similar to those at Alviso.

Figure 3a. Bair Island Marsh Complex and adjacent sloughs. Breached ponds are shaded red.